

It is a matter of discretion for individual employers to recognize any qualification to which this course may lead.

MA LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE (MALA)

Reg. No.: 253133

This programme is offered by University of Gloucestershire and delivered in Hong Kong at THEi. The MALA offered by UoG programme is the oldest continuously-offered accredited landscape architecture programme in the UK.

The programme structure and curriculum are well-established, providing a strong link between design and industry, and develops and refines vital skills and experience needed to establish a long-term career in the profession of landscape architecture.

Why study landscape architecture with the University of Gloucestershire (UoG)?

Landscape Architecture and Town and Country Planning course of UoG rank 4th in the UK for graduate prospects, according to The Times Good University Guide 2021.

Careers & Industry Links

Graduates from this course can go on to work in:

- ❖ national parks and city layouts
- ❖ world heritage sites
- ❖ school playground design
- ❖ landscape architect in private practice or in public and charity sectors
- ❖ landscape planning
- ❖ project management
- ❖ garden design

Learn on the UK's longest running landscape architecture course. UoG's Master's Degree is fully accredited by the Royal Chartered Landscape Institute (LI) and also has International Federation of Landscape Architects (IFLA) recognition.

Programme Details

7 core modules will be delivered in 2 semesters, 3 or 4 modules per semester.

| No. | Module Code | Module Name |
|-----|-------------|--|
| 1 | AD7601 | Landscape Professional Practice |
| 2 | AD7602 | Landscape Design Studio |
| 3 | AD7604 | Landscape Planning Studio |
| 4 | AD7677 | Our Urban Futures |
| 5 | AD7610 | Ecological Landscape Design |
| 6 | AD7670 | Research Methods for Built Environment |
| 7 | AD7600 | Master Dissertation or Major Project |

Study Style Learning will take place in a studio-based environment, through a combination of lectures, tutorials, seminars and student-led research. Teaching techniques combine the practice and philosophy of landscape architecture with a focus on innovation, creativity, personal development, expression, professionalism and sustainability.

All work is assessed via coursework, which is a mix of written and illustrated reports.

Course Fee

HK$125,125 for the whole course (7 modules)
(4 instalments)

Enrolment

Download application form:

UoG shall award the MALA degree to students who have successfully completed the course requirements.

